I'm signing off on the yellow package right now (for Brianna) and will move it to John. I've made a few very small edits in the version attached, accepted all changes, printed it, and replaced it in the package. Let me know if anyone needs anything more from ORC. I'm happy to help coordinate.

Thanks,

Thomas

I can share the latest draft with Carolyn Levine in OCIR for her review and comment before I then share with the Navy's Jeanine Womble who is my counterpart with the Navy for review comments. I will keep you all posted on whether OCIR's Carolyn Levine has any comments or edits to this revised draft.

Thanks for all this work, Lily! I think we should check with Brent first thing Monday on the HQ routing issue. I think we're in good shape. As you know, we also have a reporter eager to see our response.

I'll be here Monday morning and will touch base with Brent.

Have a great weekend!

Dear Bill,

I checked w/Navy, and they are comfortable with the language in the attached draft that states that the Navy is the lead on the suspension/debarment issue. In addition, Enrique was the last reviewer on this version, so I checked with John, who confirmed it does not need to go through him again. However, he will need to sign on the yellow folder. Attached is a photo of the routing slip. It does not have HQ on it. Brent said there is a possibility it may need to go through HQ. If so, do you know who it goes to and how to route appropriately?

Dear Thomas,

Since Brianna is out, could you review and sign for ORC? I can bring to you this afternoon if you are in.

I have the yellow folder, and I want to begin routing it. In addition, Brent said we will need to coordinate with the Navy. I have shown the hard copy draft to my Navy staff level counterpart, but I believe Brent has a counterpart assigned to Congressional relations as well.

I will be out of town 6/9-17 helping my mom with surgery, but I will be monitoring phone and email. I will not be able to physically route the yellow folder. Brent, could you help with that as needed?

Thanks!
